Flowers

Many desire to place floral arrangements in the church. Please observe the following when making arrangements with your florist:

- 1) “Flowers ... are particularly apt for the decoration of the liturgical space, since they are of nature, always discreet in their message, never cheap or tawdry or ill-made.” (Environment and Art in Catholic Worship, #102)
- 2) Floral “decoration should never impede the approach to or the encircling of the altar or any of the ritual movement and action, but there are places in most liturgical spaces where it is appropriate and where it can be enhancing” (EACW, #102). Floral arrangements may be placed at either side of the altar on pedestals provided by the florist or ones that the parish furnishes, or in the front of the altar. Floral arrangements are not to be placed on the altar or attached in any way to the unity candle stand. Floral arrangements may be placed in front of the ambo (lectern) or on pedestals against the back wall of the sanctuary.
- 3) The whole space is to be considered the arena of decoration, not merely the sanctuary.” (EAWC, #102) Floral arrangements may be placed in the back of church at either side of the main aisle. These flowers, especially if they are fragrant, would be a gracious sign of welcome. If flowers are to be used to decorate the ends of pews, they should be used at regular intervals along the entire length of the aisles.
- 4) We welcome any floral arrangements you may wish to leave in the church after the celebration of the wedding. Your flowers would continue to enhance parish worship and be a fine gift to the Parish. We also respect your plans to bring these arrangements to your reception hall.
- 5) Finally, in all instances, we remind you that there may be no alteration of any of the seasonal church decorations, especially that of the Christmas and Easter seasons.

Aisle Runner

It is not necessary to have an aisle runner. However, if a couple chooses to have an aisle runner for personal reasons, arrangements are made through the florist. The ushers are responsible for placing the runner before the ceremony, removing the runner, and disposing of it.

Candles

St. Joseph Parish provides the altar and sanctuary candles for weddings. The couple is responsible for providing the unity candle if they have chosen to have one, as well as the individual candles to accompany the unity candle, as well as the candle stands for all three. No other wax candles besides the unity candle are permitted in the church
